

Friends of The OPP Museum Pedal for the Past FAQ

WHAT:

A lovely 50 or 100 kilometre bike ride (your choice) on paved roads through the beautiful wooded hills and rolling farmland of rural Oro-Medonte with friends, colleagues and family!

WHO:

Law enforcement personnel, friends and family.
OPP Commissioner Chris D. Lewis will lead the riders at the start.

WHY:

Get some exercise and support the Friends and The OPP Museum in their mission to preserve the history of the OPP and its place in Ontario heritage.

WHEN:

Thursday, September 6, 2012, 10:00 a.m.

WHERE:

The ride leaves and returns to OPP GHQ in Orillia.

COST:

Each rider will be expected to raise $200 in sponsorships from friends and families. Every cent of raised money will benefit the Museum. Corporate sponsorships are also available.

PERKS:

Beside a great ride with friends and family, each rider will receive a high-quality cycling jersey designed for the event. Hydration and assistance stations will be available along the route. Participants will share a celebratory meal at the Steakout Cafeteria at GHQ. The top three fundraisers and their life partners will be taken out to dinner by the Commissioner and his spouse, OPP Superintendent Angie Howe.

This is a friendly road ride on pavement, not a race!
A fast group and a relaxed pace group will be led by ride organizers.
